(SBU) Poloff on November 13 conveyed to the MFA ref A points urging China to instruct its UN delegation to vote against any amendments to the U.S.-proposed UN General Assembly resolution condemning rape as a tool for political and military objectives and to support the resolution without any amendments. MFA Department of International Organizations and Conferences Division of Specialized UN Agencies Director Yang Shaokun said that he would need to research the background to our request, but that our views would receive serious consideration.
